Stop the Waste

With coal at almost a prohibitive price, and almost impossible to get, and with city funds exhausted, it is a wonder the authorities do not wake up to the waste of water in all parts of the city. There is the immense and numerous fountains running all day and all night in the many parks; the public waste in unnecessary sprinkling, and the thousands of taps left open day and night which are doing no one good, and might as well be shut off and save tons of coal and thousands of dollars. Place the city employes on the same basis as those of private concerns, let them put in their eight hours of honest work, and cut out the vacations and "leaves of absence" for mythical illness and other causes and the city force might be reduced one-third. An employe of many years says that at no time does one-half the city employes give three-fourths service to the city. If the city affairs were administered on the same business basis private concerns must be administered, we might take the surplus revenue and nickel-plate every street and alley in the big city.

What Is the Use?

We often feel that way, when we note the careless and heedless way people pass over the most important matters in public or private life. What is everyone's business is no one's, and thus important matters are let "slide" that the public should make it their business to attend to. For instance: the city council and other bodies have within the week voted away nearly twenty millions in additional expenditures that must be paid from the city funds, and these funds must be raised by taxing the people. The landlord and large property owners may pass it on by adding it to the rent of the tenants, but the ordinary fellow who owns his home cannot do this and must pay the bill. Criminals of all kinds by the exercise of political or other kinds of "pull" go unpunished; public affairs are neglected while the officials are enjoying vacations or periodical strikes, for all of which the people must pay, and it is their business to protect themselves and even though the newspapers may tell the tale, nothing is done and the writer begins to think, "What's the use?" So long as the people will pay no attention to the warnings of the press, and permit this loose order of things to exist, just so long will the boodling, crafting and money snatching element run our public affairs. You and we both know this, but what are we doing to stop it?

Vernon Calhoun, who has been visiting his parents, of 6405 Stewart ave., leaves this week for Cuba.

Harold J. (Skinny) Clemmons of 6721 Eberhardt ave., returned the first of the week from a two weeks' vacation spent at Oshkosh, Wis.

Miss Mary Lewis, enroute from Detroit and Ann Arbor, Mich., to Memphis, Tenn., spent Sunday and the Fourth with her sister, Mrs. H. D. Mann of 450 61st place.

Frank L. Maynard of 6736 Emerald ave. is to wed Miss Elaine Chase Williamson of Chicago Lawn. The engagement is announced; the wedding will not take place until fall.

It's great to be able to read everything quickly and easily. It's great to have acuteness of vision. Eye comfort is principally a matter of correct glasses. Your eyes will be made happy if we provide the glasses. Dr. J. B. Pattillo, eyesight specialist, 456 W. 63rd st. Tel. Englewood 8300.—adv.

John T. Vance of 620 61st st., who sailed for England with his family a few weeks ago, happened on the same boat with Doug and Mary Pickford-Fairbanks and Colonel House, President Wilson's hired man. It took a column in the New York papers to tell how Mr. Vance was taken for Col. House, greatly to the amusement of Mr. Vance.

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood. The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

Of course you would! All of that and more
Come and see what this bride did! And laugh till you ache at some brand new angles on the delicate art of training hubbies.

She knew her soul mate the moment she clasped hands with him, but to get him she first had to marry off his entire family. Talk about a miracle worker—zowie! Old ones or cold ones, longs or blondes, veterans or youngsters, she matched 'em like Grant took Richmond. When he holds your hand does your pulse beat faster, does your heart palpitate, do you blush? You're in love. See the sure test as played by Constance Talmadge. She knew her soul mate the moment she clasped hands with him, but to get him she first had to marry off his entire family. Talk about a miracle worker. Zowie! Old ones or cold ones, longs or blonds, veterans or youngsters, she matched 'em like Grant took Richmond. And other selected playlets that will make you forget the hot weather and enjoy a refreshing evening's entertainment.

Sunday and Monday, July 11th and 12th, continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m. Special double feature program, two days only. The popular favorite, Wallace Reid, assisted by Bebe Daniels, in a charming story that's all smiles, "Sick-a-Bed." From the hilarious stage farce by Ethel Watts Mumford. Easy to take! Makes you feel fine! A romance that starts with old lovers "in wrong" and ends with new lovers "in right." You don't generally go to sick rooms for laughs, do you? But in this picture Wallie isn't really ill. He's just shamming in order to get a friend out of a merry matrimonial mess. And he makes the jazziest patient the doctors ever had. With pretty Bebe Daniels as the nurse. Also Pathe News. Matinee only, the second episode of Eddie Polo in the new thrilling and daring serial, "The Vanishing Dagger." Also an exceptionally classy comedy. The hilariously funny Johnny Ray in "Jiggs and the Lion." Adapted from Geo. McManus' famous series, "Bringing Up Father." A clean, humorous comedy, showing the renowned Jiggs taking a whirl at the society game. It's chuck full of wholesome laughter, giggles and snickers. It's great. Don't miss it.

Wednesday and Thursday, July 14th and 15th, two more special days, matinee and night. Everybody's favorite star, Bryant Washburn, in "The Sins of Saint Anthony," with Margaret Loomis, Lorenza Lazzarini and a beauteous bevy of gorgeous girls. Mr. Washburn has the role of Anthony Osgood, who, on account of excessive devotion to the laboratory and microscope, has become so hopelessly old-fashioned in love-making that his fiancee gives him the mitten, at the same time advising him to go out and get some pep. This Anthony proceeds to do, placing himself under the tutelage of the dancing star of the jazziest musical show in town. Anthony's education advances by leaps and bounds, until in the end he has the rare pleasure of turning his former fiancee down and marrying the dancer. Also Screen Magazine, Topical Events and a good comedy.

There seeming no other way out of it he goes to bed. Enter nursie in the person of Bebe Daniels. Ah!—the love interest. See it. Also Sunshine comedy, "Monkey Stuff."

Friday and Saturday, July 16th and 17th, two big days. Constance Talmadge, supported by her sister, Natalie, and John Holliday, in "The Love Expert." The star will make you laugh whether you want to or not. Without effort she can make you want to shake her and buy her an ice cream cone and pay the war tax cheerfully for the privilege of looking at her.

In a Love and Laughter Romance With a Rosebud Garden of Girls

"The Sins of St. Anthony"

A Delightful Play, Adapted From the Saturday Evening Post Story by CHARLES COLLIS

In Lovely woman's eyes he had seven deadly sins—
1. He lacked pep and he couldn't dance.
2. His wildest revel was a stroll in the park.
3. He wore square-toed gaiters and a celluloid collar.
4. His clothes shone instead of his shoes.
5. At a pink tea he was a blue funk.
6. He never pressed his trousers or a lady's hand.
7. All he knew of life he saw through his microscope.

So his sweetheart turned him down, and to cure his "sins" he turned to the chorus of "The Rajah's Pet Wife." Come and laugh till you're weak at Anthony's joyous "conversion."

It it's pictures that are master productions and presented with skill and with the 20th Century methods, that you demand, then the Tulane is your photoplay house. Here are only a few of their offerings:

Monday and Tuesday, July 12th and 13th—two big days. The picture you'll never forget! Henry B. Walthall, star of "The Birth of a Nation," in America's masterpiece of emotional drama, "The Confession." See the mighty Henry B. Walthall and a picked cast enact one of the tensest screen dramas ever filmed. This is a good play. Whatever your religion, whatever your sex, whatever your natural inclination toward the movies may be, you will find in "The Confession" something that is fine and good and worth while, for it deals with the things that make life livable. There is sin and there is strife, but there are also faith and justice, honor and truth, and the peace that passeth understanding. This production carries the endorsements of Cardinals Gibbons, O'Connell and Mercier.

Wednesday, July 14th. Adorable Elaine Hammerstein and Matt Moore in "Whispers." A story of society and its false shams. Portraying the methods of society in marrying their daughters for convenience. An elaborate production staged amid the settings of the idle rich and vividly depicting a beautiful girl who became enmeshed in the "whispers" of scandal.

Thursday, July 15th. Maurce Tourneur's great production, with Vivian Martin and a notable cast, "The Butterfly on the Wheel."

Friday, July 16th. Harry Carey in "The Square Shooter." Carey pictures need no introduction to Tulane patrons. "Enough said."

Coming Monday and Tuesday, July 19th and 20th, Marshall Neilen presents "The River's End," with Louis Stone, Jane Novak and Marjorie Daw. Officer of Royal Mounted in a thrilling chase after an outlaw across the snow wastes of the frozen north—Tugitive returns to civilization to masquerade in the name of the pursuer, who dies of frost bitten lung—strange love for sister of dead man who mistakes outlaw for her brother—mysterious spell thrown over white girl by Chinese prince in disguise—battle in opium den and burning of place with murderer doped and held prisoner—love and God's country.

The first thing every husband does learn is that she won't. Usual extra reels and special feature attraction.

Sunday and Monday, July 11th and 12th. Katherine McDonald in "Passion's Playground." The best thing Katherine McDonald has done to date is this story of a convent bred girl who goes to Monte Carlo, and because of her winnings becomes the center of attraction. To save a girl friend who has run away from the convent with a married man Mary Grant keeps silent, and by so doing admits herself as the guilty party. Then she disappears, and but for the timely intervention of an old friend, Prince Vanno Della Robbia, who loved the beautiful girl, would never have found her. However, things turned out all right.

Tuesday and Wednesday, July 13th and 14th. Billie Burke in "Away Goes Prudence." Bored with pouring society teas, she ran away and held herself for ransom. Then a robber band kidnaped her and taught her fancy burgling. One wild, woolly night—? See the loveliest girl in pictures in her merriest madcap romance!

Friday and Saturday, July 16th and 17th. Wm. Farnum in "The Joyous Troublemakers." "The Joyous Troublemakers" is a very fine production from every point of view. The story is of a youth who finds gold by accident where men have long sought it in vain. The greed and jealousy of the thwarted seekers make wealth a dangerous possession; but the possessor in this case smiles through it all until, one day, something happens that involves the girl he loves. Then he frowns, and stirring events follow fast and furious.

Sunday and Monday, July 18th and 19th. Harold MacGrath's Saturday Evening Post story, "The Yellow Typhoon," a thrilling tale of mystery, intrigue and love, with Anita Stewart, Joseph Kilgour and a notable cast of stars.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

You've Found It Out

You can call upon your courage,
You can call upon your skill,
You can grit your teeth in battle
With the final word in will;
You can steel your soul to meet it,
As you rave or as you rant,
But for all that you have in you
There are certain days you can't
You can grit your teeth and try it
You can counter with your nerve,
You can stick unto the finish
As you never turn or swerve;
You can say, "They'll never beat me,"
As you dig in with your toes,
But for all the day is waiting
When you'll find that nothing goes.

Capital is only saved wealth.

Compliments on a tombstone are what Casey would call "epi-taffy."

Casey says "Shure ut do be worry thot kapes the undertaker busy, not haard wurk."

You can hear almost any kind of presidential talk you want to nowdays.

Almost any employe may have a holiday but the employers can't afford one.

It seems a crime to have to pay fifteen cents a pound for potatoes so darn small they have hardly gotter their eyes open.

If at any time you feel chilly, just think of your taxes for next year and the rent you'll have to pay—that will make any one hot.

As "Doug and Mary" were losing their prestige here they went to England to build up, but divorcees are so few there they are finding it hard work.

I have been just honing to write an editorial on the low cost of something, but the markets won't give me a chance; only that the dollar of our dads is only worth a measly fifty cents.

Casey says, "Oi used to think Oi would loike to own a Klondike gold mine, boot now Oi'd rather be a real estate expert wid Mayor Thompson's gang and mek a fortune at wanst."

"Jack" Dunbar is a practical sort of cuss even though a fisherman; he writes: "I know it is customary to send a fish to friends, but I haven't caught any bigger than a minute, so go to Ben Jesselson's and get the kind you like and charge it to me."

Far be it from me to rake up a man's past crimes, but I must call attention to the fact that both Harding, the Republican presidential candidate, and Cox, the Democratic, are newspaper men. However both are probably trying hard to live it down.

There is a whole lot of girls who when they say they are going bathing, mean only to take a sun bath, as they never get more than one toe wet in the lake, but then they wear pretty suits, you know.

A friend suggests that while the popular park may have been named for George Washington, it is the compatriots of Booker Washington who are monopolizing great parts of it now.

One of the reasons a man may think more of his stenog than his wife is, that he can dictate to the stenog but dare not to his wife.

I am loath to believe that anyone can get liquor these days, but the sun must have had a strange effect on many people Sunday and Monday judging from the automobile wrecks and mix-ups.

My companion in crime, John E. Foster of the Economist, wishing to glory over us poor fellows that have to work for a living, is bombarding us with cards showing the big fish he is catching in the north Wisconsin lakes. The last is of a 40-pound "musky" which he says is the kind of minnows they use to catch real fish. John has a beautiful medal awaiting his return.

All Endorse Chas. W. Vail for Clerk of Supreme Court

It is with pleasure we read a circular just issued urging the candidacy for renomination of Charles W. Vail, our old Englewood friend, for clerk of the supreme court of Illinois. It starts off with the endorsement of all the supreme court justices, and is followed by the majority of the Chicago Bar Association and then by the majority of the leading members of the bar from all sections of the state. Mr. Vail has made an extraordinary good clerk, he has kept the records up so perfectly that never before have actions in the supreme court been so well attended to, and promptly administered. Mr. Vail's winning personality, his experience and familiarity with the work and his splendid corps of assistants, make him the most desirable man in the big state that could be mentioned for the place. Of course all of his home friends endorse him and we are right proud of "Smiling Charley" as a product of our town. The primaries will be held on Sept. 15th and every Englewood vote should be for Mr. Vail.

All About Oak Haven Home

Editor of the Englewood Times:

In a recent article of your valuable paper reference was made to the Oakhaven Old People's Home project. I am sure it was not so intended but the casual reader might easily have concluded that Oakhaven was not progressing and that its directorate was disturbed by factional differences.

On the contrary, Oakhaven is making progress. Its board has no factional disagreements and its meetings are almost painfully peaceful. First: Oakhaven already has a very substantial fund in cash and pledges toward its proposed building. The cash is deposited in the Englewood State Bank and is accumulating interest. An endowment fund is already started. Second: The board has recently purchased additional land on Western ave. and now has ample space for the fine building which it is proposed to erect. Third: Plans for the building are practically completed and at least a part of the building accommodating some thirty-five inmates will be built as soon as building conditions become normal. The completed building will care for nearly one hundred old people. To attempt to build under present conditions would be to waste public money. Fourth: A strong woman's auxiliary composed of leading women of this part of the city is working unceasingly and enthusiastically for the home; this in itself assures the success of the project. Fifth: The friendly litigation with the very excellent Illinois Colony Club is merely to settle the conditions under which Oakhaven shall receive the ten thousand dollars collected for it by that organization. I understand that the majority of the present governing board of the Illinois Colony Club are willing to turn the money over on conditions which the directors of Oakhaven can consistently agree to. The matter will probably be settled in the near future in a manner satisfactory to the club and to Oakhaven. In the meantime the larger part of the ten thousand dollars is on deposit in the Englewood State Bank and drawing interest.

The Oakhaven Old People's Home is assured beyond all doubt. Its affairs are in the hands of a strong body of business men and women who, without compensation of any kind, are giving Oakhaven their time and enthusiasm. Such a project involving finally the collection and proper use of several hundred thousand dollars is no light task and requires time, patience and hard work.

The directors of Oakhaven greatly appreciate the continued interest of the many subscribers to this much needed institution. Some seventy homeless old people have already made application for entrance and are anxiously waiting for the opening of the home. We need and ask for the interest and help of our generous Chicago public.

The directors will gladly furnish further detailed information concerning the plans for Oakhaven and its present financial situation to any one desiring it.

DR. R. A. WHITE.
President of Oakhaven Old People's Home.

Half a Century Faithful Service

Two Englewood men, Mr. Frederick T. Reid of 520 60th place and Mr. Walter Haskell of 7157 Princeton ave., were the recipients this week of diamond medals from Marshall Field Co. in reward for fifty years' faithful service in their employ. Both of these gentlemen are still in the wholesale department, and are not only good men for the firm, but are highly respected and honored citizens of Englewood whom we are delighted to see recognized.

Y. M. C. A. Boys' Camp Opens July 10th

On July 10th and 11th the Y. M. C. A. will take thirty boys to Camp Owl for its first week end camp.

There are several things that the boy must keep in mind when preparing to go. They must bring their individual dishes and blankets. They also pay for their meals and transportation, which amounts to $3.25 for each boy. The place to sleep, the camp, the supervision and the good time are all furnished by the Y. M. C. A.

Many boys and groups of boys will want to get in on this trip so we will take the first thirty boys who sign up and pay $1.00 as a registration fee. This registration fee will be credited to the transportation and meals account, leaving the boy only $2.25 to pay when he actually goes on Saturday, July 10th.

Camp Owl, the sand dunes, week end camp is a beautiful place, and every boy will want to go again after he has once been there.

Boys, sign up early if you want to be one of the lucky thirty. The place to send registrations is 6307 Harvard Ave., in care of the Englewood Y. M. C. A. Mr. Ernest Brunoehler will take charge of the boys on the trip.

Arthur Sandberg Buys Manahan's Store

Arthur Sandberg, the jeweler at 430 63rd st., closed the deal Tuesday for the jewelry store of Chas. F. Manahan, 359 63rd st., and will take possession Monday morning. Mr. Sandberg worked for many years as principal jeweler in this store before he went into business for himself, and is one of the best known experts in that line in the city. He will remove the stock in his present location to the larger store, and be pleased to meet his old friends in the new store. Mr. Manahan, who leaves soon for the west, sold on the thirteenth anniversary of his buying the store, and has been most successful in it. We wish the new proprietor the prosperity he deserves and extend the same good wishes to Mr. Manahan in his western venture.

Thoughts from Abroad

(Written by a soldier of the 362nd United States Infantry.)

Dear Dad, he wrote, I'm here in France,
And sharing in each Yank advance;
We're driving back the filthy Hun;
The Heinies now are on the run.
And I am well and strong tonight,
Except for little things that bite.

Do you recall those happy days
We sat before the log fire's blaze,
Within our little parlor snug,
With "Shep" asleep upon the rug,
And heard the clock tick on the shelf,
Except when "Shep" would scratch himself?

And there were times, with sudden zip,
He'd bite himself upon the hip;
Then turn his head in manner queer
To scratch himself behind the ear;
Then, like a whirling of the gale,
Get up and madly chase his tail.

Well, Dad, I do not want to brag,
But since in France I served the flag
I'll say, in running down a flea,
"Shep" never had a thing on me.
In fact, I think I've learned to do
Some twists our old dog never knew.

We used to scold and put him out;
We would not let him stay about,
When he began to thump the floor;
But oh! when I get home once more
I'll let "Shep" scratch the evening through,
Because, you see, I've had 'em, too.

Oppose Opening Fountain Inn As Dance Hall

An attempt is being made to reopen a cabaret at the notorious Fountain Inn, formerly conducted by the Weiss Bros. Since this place was closed some weeks ago an entirely different atmosphere has prevailed around the neighborhood. The absence of hangerson and loafers that formerly congregated in front of the place is a decided improvement for the street. Women and girls may now pass the place free from ogling and insult. The element that formerly made its headquarters there has found new stamping grounds, and the community is better for their going.

The men who are attempting to reopen the place seem to be all right themselves and promise to run a clean dance and soft drink emporium but in view of past experiences it does not seem possible to make a place of this kind go without "cheating" and selling liquor. It would seem for the best interests of the community that a vigorous protest should be made by all the lawabiding influences of the neighborhood against the reissuance of a license for the reopening of this place.
